1. "We are planning to purchase two high-density baling presses for cotton and shall much appreciate your letting us have per forma invoices, inclusive of all accessories.
2. "Perhaps the following particulars may help you in meeting our requirements. One of these presses will be installed at the port of Piraeus and the other at the port of Salonica, where bales weighing between 220 and 250 kgs and coming from the ginneries of the cooperatives will be compressed to the usual cubic dimensions of overseas export bales."
